

AO 424.5 Coats of Arms (4-19-21)

(Misc.) OOW-EJ-238-4

January 12, 1922.

From: The Adjutant General of the Army.
To: The Quartermaster General.
Subject: Coat-of-arms for the 27th Infantry.

1. The Secretary of War approves the following coat-of-arms for this regiment:

SHIELD: Shield, argent the insignia of the Siberian American Expeditionary Force proper.

CREST: One wreath of the colors, (argent and azure) two kriser saltire-wise gules, hilted or, in the upper angle a crescent argent.

MOTTO: Nec Aspera Terrent, (Frightened by no difficulties).

DESCRIPTION: The 27th Infantry was organized in 1901. It saw fighting in the Philippines, particularly in the Lake Lanao expedition. This service is indicated by the crest. The regiment saw service in the Siberian Expedition 1918-1920, this is indicated by the charge on the shield, the shrapnel case in blue outline with the blue polar bear seated. The motto, "Frightened by no difficulties," has been used by the regiment for many years.

2. You are directed to have a drawing made indicating the tinctures and to send a copy of same to the Regimental Commander.

By order of the Secretary of War:

Harry L. King

Adjutant General.
